ORDER

NAKNEK NATIVE VILLAGE, IBIA 05-22-A Appellant Appeal of a October 27, 2004 decision issued by the Alaska Regional Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, regarding the rev. designation of the Tribe's service area ALASKA REGIONAL DIRECTOR, BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, Indian Self Determination and Educational Assistance Act (ISDEAA), 25 U.S.C. §§ Appellee 450-450n NATIVE VILLAGE OF SOUTH NAKNEK, Intervenor _____ KING SALMON TRIBE

Stipulated Joint Request for Remand Granted

Intervenor

By Order dated January 31, 2005 the Interior Board of Indian Appeals referred this matter to the Hearings Division with instructions to hold an evidentiary hearing. On February 10, 2005 intervenor status was granted to the Native Village of South Naknek and the King Salmon Tribe.

During the course of several pre-hearing teleconferences and negotiations which took place between the parties, the parties determined that they would jointly request that the appealed decision dated October 27, 2004 be vacated and remanded back the to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for the purpose of taking evidence and issuing a new decision. On February 18, 2005 the parties filed a Stipulated Joint Request for Remand. Accordingly, said request is hereby granted and this proceeding is dismissed based thereon.
